[Chorus: Sonny]Doing fine, doing greatNothing to write home about, nothing to sayGoing to sleep but I keep falling awakeMake something to eat and I just stare at the plateGoing through hell with a smile on your faceKeep that to yourself, there's a time and a place, yeahWords just felt like a wasteThe truth comes out, don't matter how much time it takesYeah[Verse 1: Devenny]Life here is so mundaneBreathe now, our sky is tameSoft-spoken, rough tonesCloak watching, I feel oldMy body came, the time calledSo I left late, I left well aloneA journey starts and another closesA gust of wind shows a small enclosureWe just left to findOpen oceans, red rosesWith new fulfilmentThere's something out there, I know there isI can see photosynthesisYeah, leaps of faithWith your opennessDon't be scared to embrace how you feelThose green pasturesWill revealIn due time, in due time[Chorus: Sonny]Doing fine, doing greatNothing to write home about, nothing to sayGoing to sleep but I keep falling awakeMake something to eat and I just stare at the plateGoing through hell with a smile on your faceKeep that to yourself, there's a time and a place, yeahWords just felt like a wasteThe truth comes out, don't matter how much time it takesYeah[Verse 2: Eliot]Leave the house reluctantlySmoke some groceriesFreak out in aisle threePrying to your anxietyGoing out? It's not likelyWhat if I get struck by lightning?And anyway your friends don't like meAnd the world is frighteningHad enough of thisMaybe it's time to get out and dodgeBad blood, [?] fogOld ghosts in the treetopsAnd after all we've lost they've sold us outI've gotta skip townI gotta get out 'cause I wanna live now[Chorus: Sonny]Doing fine, doing greatNothing to write home about, nothing to sayGoing to sleep but I keep falling awakeMake something to eat and I just stare at the plateGoing through hell with a smile on your faceKeep that to yourself, there's a time and a place, yeahWords just felt like a wasteThe truth comes out, don't matter how much time it takesYeah
