[Intro: Eliot] Might scurry, but there ain't no rat in me
Hide out, split then scatter please
Underground trains all clattery
Dust make my eyes matter-y
Underground trains all clattery (clang-clang)
Dust make my eyes matter-y
Been staked out latterly , take out the battery
I might scurry, but there ain't no rat in me
Hide out, split then scatter please
Been staked out latterly
[Verse 1: Devenny] Yeah, this dream
There were faces in the ferns when I sleep
Every night, I ponder purpose I seek
Is it worthless? I'm worthless, just breathe
I'm a character, NPC
Push me further, you won't get no fucking empathy
When I was five, my mother struggled to try nourish me
No food up on the table; stomach, it would growl at me
And I would vow the very day that I get currency
Is the day I set her free from all the fuckery
Skin brown, big heart, are you proud of me?
Ex-addict in a panic, this my therapy (Fuck it)
Loading, currently, I'm still loading
Posted up with some low-lives, nose-deep in some coady
Suite life and I'm rolling
Heart beats, I can't focus
Rambling, but I'm coping
Open water and I'm floating
Hope lives and I'm hopeless
Wrote this, frozen
In a fear I might be dying
Always feel like I'm dying
Approaching end game is Zion
Matrix mystifying
What you mean that I'm lying?
What you mean? I ain't lying
Wait, double it, double it, double it, double it, double it, I need more
Double it, double it, double it, double it, double it, I need more
Out, out, out
Double it, double it, out, out, out
[Verse 2: Sonny] Yeah, tastes like medicine, that Took a sip, said it's venom in that
Begging it, that's what led him off track
Bren said you could do better than that
But glitch in the mainframe, I don't wanna, I don't wanna end up in that Paid up front so I'm getting it back
Past got dark and he edited that
I lost my touch, but I'm getting it back
And we both knew life wouldn't be fair
That's something that we share
Voice told me not to be scared
It's starting to seem clear
Smell of the sea air
I guess you had to be there
Wake me up when I repair
Too close to home, don't shit if you eat there
Use it, lose it, got a purpose, don't need to prove it
Hide it, disguise it, don't put it on autopilot
Use it, lose it, got a purpose, don't need to prove it
Hide it, disguise it, don't put it on autopilot
[Outro: Eliot & Sonny] Battery, take out the battery
Take out the battery (Do it so no one can listen)
Battery, take out the battery
Take out the battery (I, I'm trying to stay hidden)
Battery, take out the battery
Take out the battery (Do it so no one can listen)
Battery, take out the battery
Take out the battery (I, I'm trying to stay hidden)
