

NEVERMIND [2024] (English Translation)

Lyrics to "NEVERMIND 2024 "

Verse 1

My clouded memories drown in my mind
Shipwrecked lost and ditched in a sea of people
You know, this stuff is bad strong on the temples
I asked him to wake me up if I doze off into nothingness
Nothing goes well, these shits lie like hyenas:
TVs on and souls off
Always turning on you you know how to be conscious
They know that you aim high if you swim against the current
And they ask who I am: I'm stubborn
A born good man raised as a bastard
They want me to sink, I've learned to give them back a lot
And I sink but counting the bastards I'm drowning
Lost in my spaces, God, I'm tired
This sea always kills anyone who heads out to sea
I pass the Pillars of Hercules, it must be a hyperbole
Wish me a good trip

Chorus

Never mind, never mind
Fuck it, run and go
Nothing changes for these people if you're not there
Never mind, never mind
Fuck it and go
It doesn't matter how much you fight
Never mind, never mind
Fuck it, run and go
Nothing changes for these people if you're not there
Never mind, never mind
Fuck it and go
It doesn't matter how much you fight

Verse 2

Half-blood in the feud, intifada music
Be my stick while I trudge on the road and it's never dirt
I have a machete made of words: I cut your judgments and your fashions
My streets are always empty
I send the wheels 180 but without a route
I have a crooked visor, never scratched straight
I went to two schools: above the desks and under my soles
Thanks to one I know how to speak, thanks to the other I can keep quiet
And never, I mean never fake
If the hills have eyes imagine the streets where you pushed me
I am an animal that has been extinct for a long time, different from the rest
I don't aim for the excellent, but always for the "Distinguished"
I live in the most complex way

The universe towards the one and the rest
He can get fucked you can be sure of it
I live in the most complex way
The universe towards the one and the rest
It doesn't matter a shit like who lost you

Chorus

Never mind, never mind
Fuck it, run and go
Nothing changes for these people if you're not there
Never mind, never mind
Fuck it and go
It doesn't matter how much you fight
